Discussion

Raleigh Dombek spoke in opposition on behalf of the Garfield organization due to the uniqueness of the property which made it different for normal commercial zoning. He noted the property was bounded by the Arizona Department of Transportation property and a freeway entrance ramp on the west, I-10 freeway on the north, a private business on the south and residential on the east. He said the neighbors wanted more information, especially since there was no business plan, before supporting this liquor license.

Councilwoman Hodge Washington requested staff address the location concerns.

Deputy City Clerk Kristen Lecuyer-Benavidez stated this was a request for a new Series 6 liquor license for a bar that was within a hotel. She explained the license would allow customers to purchase in the bar and consume throughout the hotel. She advised the location was vacant land, noting it was not uncommon for this type of license to be associated with that type of land. She added the location was not previously licensed for liquor sales so there was no interim permit in place, but required a use permit to allow outdoor dining and alcohol consumption.

Councilwoman Hodge Washington inquired since there was no business plan that when it was submitted to Planning and Development the information would be provided to the community for input.

Ms. Lecuyer-Benavidez replied that was correct, noting requirements for the application as outlined by the statutes were met by the applicant including a proposed drawing for the business. She affirmed the community would have further input opportunities related to the proposed building and project through the use permit hearings with the Planning and Development Department.

Councilwoman Hodge Washington indicated staff's responses addressed the concerns raised by the Garfield neighborhood.

A motion was made and seconded to approve this item.

Mayor Gallego thanked Councilwoman Hodge Washington for the follow-up as well as the Garfield neighborhood.

A motion was made by Councilwoman Hodge Washington, seconded by Councilwoman O'Brien, that this item be recommended for approval. The motion carried by the following vote:

Discussion

A motion was made and seconded to approve this item.

Councilwoman Guardado said she wanted staff to clarify what was being requested of this item.

Communications Director Dan Wilson explained this would extend an existing contract for six months, through October, while staff worked on a procurement process to develop a qualified vendor list.

Councilwoman Guardado recalled what happened at yesterday's meeting, noting people who took time off work to speak before Council and translation was not done correctly. She said services worked well with Mario Barajas and Elsie Duarte and she wanted to stipulate in the contract that specific interpreters not be called on for translation services.

Mr. Wilson responded staff could look into putting restrictions in the contract, but the contract extension allowed the City to continue working with Mr. Barajas and Ms. Duarte.

City Manager Jeffrey Barton added it depended on the availability of interpreters, noting staff could talk with the vendor about the restrictions. He said he did not know how many interpreters were part of the contract, noting one of the interpreters being restricted owned the company. He emphasized the vendor needed to have someone provide this service while under contract, along with staff working on Council's request.

Assistant City Manager Lori Bays advised staff could stipulate to prioritize interpreters based on preference.

Councilwoman Guardado stated she wanted another addition that if someone was uncomfortable with the translation provided by the City the speaker could bring their own translator.

Ms. Bays replied yes, noting that was already done by practice on occasion and could allow when necessary.

Councilwoman Guardado expressed she understood translating was a hard job, but people wanted their stories and issues relayed accurately. She remarked she wanted to stipulate prioritization with Mr. Barajas and Ms. Duarte, and if someone was uncomfortable with the translation that person could bring up their own translator. She asked if that stipulation was possible.

Ms. Bays affirmed staff could do it.

Councilwoman Pastor stated she wanted clarification there would be a variety of bilingual interpreters who could clearly capture a speaker's story, but if someone was uncomfortable with the translation that person could bring up their own interpreter.

Ms. Bays confirmed that was accurate, noting if someone was not comfortable with the interpreter provided by the City that person could bring a family member or friend forward to translate.

Councilwoman Pastor recalled that was asked at yesterday's meeting and said she wanted to be clear on the rules.

Mayor Gallego indicated best practice was to use a neutral translator, so she questioned if a speaker first started with the City's translator and only if interpretation was inaccurate would a speaker be allowed an alternative.

Ms. Bays answered that was an accurate best practice, but it was the Council's discretion as to accuracy determination versus a speaker's preference.

Councilwoman Guardado stated the preference was Mr. Barajas and Ms. Duarte, and if the speaker was uncomfortable with the translation could bring up their own translator. She expressed she would be able to determine incorrect translation from the dais and at that point the speaker could choose their translator.

Ms. Bays replied it was the City's practice if a speaker was not comfortable with the provided translation that person could choose their own translator; however, the City preferred to provide that service with contracted interpreters first. She requested the Council provide clarity on whether it was an accuracy issue or the speaker's preference when it happened. She emphasized the City would accommodate another translator if needed.

Councilwoman Guardado said she agreed the City's translators could start translating, but if there were issues during translation the speaker could have someone else provide translation.

Mayor Gallego confirmed it would be a decision based on translation accuracy.

Councilwoman Pastor stated she wanted to make sure the time given to someone speaking another language with translation was clear.

Ms. Bays advised the City allowed additional time for the interpreter to translate what was being said, so instead of two minutes for comments it was four minutes to allow complete translation.

Request to authorize the City Manager, or his designee, to contract with HR&A Advisors, Inc. for consulting services to assist in the identification, establishment, and activation of an entertainment district. The aggregate value of the contract will not exceed $529,000. Further request to authorize the City Controller to disburse all funds related to this item. There is no impact to the General Fund and funding is available in the Downtown Community Reinvestment Fund.

Summary

In 2019, Conventions, Sports & Leisure International completed a market study on behalf of the Phoenix Convention Center (PCC). The study included an analysis of the PCC's strategic advantages along with recommendations to enhance the PCC market capture through near and long-term space and site planning, convention hotel development, and destination enhancements. In 2022, an update to the study was completed to incorporate the effects and changes of COVID-19 pandemic had on the industry. A key finding and recommendation of both the 2019 study and the 2022 update was the creation of an entertainment district, generally surrounding PCC. An entertainment district would provide conventioners, visitors, and residents a walkable, vibrant, safe and a navigable area that could include hospitality amenities such as a density of restaurants, bars, attractions, street performers, public art, significant lighting and landscaping, scooter docks and electric vehicle shuttles.

In September 2023, staff issued a solicitation for consulting services to assist in the identification, establishment, and activation of an entertainment district. The scope of work will include:

Project Management

Discussion

A motion was made and seconded to approve this item.

Jadestorm Shamsid-Deen, president and founder of Mir'ra Image which was a neighborhood organization that represents young adults, said she had faced challenges the past 14 years. She indicated her position on this award was neutral and asked if the Request for Proposal (RFP) for this entertainment district stipulate benefits for the residents in Districts 7 and 8.

Mayor Gallego advised Ms. Shamsid-Deen to ask her questions and then staff would respond.

Ms. Shamsid-Deen questioned if the amendment to this contract could include an outreach request to her organization for consultation and an outreach outcome report be generated after consultation with Mir'ra Image.

Councilwoman Ansari requested staff provide an outline of this contract.

Community and Economic Development Director Chris Mackay stated this RFP, which had a lot of public outreach, started from a study conducted through the Phoenix Convention Center under sports and leisure that suggested three things to enhance entertainment and downtown business. She conveyed one suggestion was to create an entertainment district, noting staff brought a consultant to Council to help the City identify items in an entertainment district that were important to the community and the City in order to move the community forward. She pointed out this was the first phase of outreach for the consultant to look at Downtown Phoenix and help the City create a path for where it wanted to go.

Councilwoman Ansari said she understood the consultant was already selected, but she wanted staff to talk about the public outreach being done and how a local business or non-profit organization would benefit from this RFP.

Ms. Mackay advised the consultant would start their work with a lot of community outreach including signature downtown stakeholders and community organizations. She emphasized this was not just a study for Districts 7 and 8, but there were many community members in other districts who were interested and came to downtown. She stated outreach would be done throughout the City to bring the community into it, so the community benefits would be identified through the process. She conveyed the outcome and outreach would enhance the downtown community to create the entertainment district for everyone.

Councilwoman Ansari requested staff connect with Ms. Shamsid-Deen's organization.

Ms. Mackay replied staff would place her organization on the list as one of the stakeholder groups to contact once the process started.

A motion was made by Councilwoman Ansari, seconded by Councilwoman Pastor, that this item be adopted. The motion carried by the following vote:

Yes: 9 - Councilwoman Ansari, Councilwoman Guardado, Councilwoman Hodge Washington, Councilwoman O'Brien, Councilwoman Pastor, Councilman Robinson, Councilman Waring, Vice Mayor Stark and Mayor Gallego

Discussion

Mayor Gallego declared the public hearing open. She announced Paul Gilbert, representing the applicant, was present to speak if necessary. Noting no one was present to speak, she declared the public hearing closed.

Councilwoman Ansari thanked Mr. Gilbert who represented Keys to Change pro bono on this case. She recalled visiting the property, formerly known as the Human Services Campus, on her first day in office in 2021, noting there were about 200 individuals living in tents around the campus and she committed to work on this issue. She remarked the pandemic exacerbated this challenge when unemployment and federal resources ran out and evictions increased which lead to about 1,000 individuals outside the campus. She also thanked the residents for their patience and collaboration as well as City staff, volunteers, non-profit partners and anyone else who had or continued to have a role in helping people get housed and into services. She remarked this process took time due to operational matters that had to be corrected and properly implemented while completing this work. She expressed having an 11-3 vote from the Central City Village Planning Committee and no appeals to this use permit was a testament to the collaborative work done to achieve better conditions for everyone. She recognized her colleagues and City executive leadership, especially staff from the Office of Homeless Solutions for their swift action in responding to the homelessness crisis.

REPORTS FROM CITY MANAGER, COMMITTEES OR CITY OFFICIALS

None.

000 CITIZEN COMMENTS

City Attorney Julie Kriegh stated during Citizen Comment, members of the public may address the City Council for up to three minutes on issues of interest or concern to them. She advised the Arizona Open Meeting Law permits the City Council to listen to the comments, but prohibits council members from discussing or acting on the matters presented.

NOTE: Councilman Robinson left the meeting.

Nicole Rodriguez mentioned the Vision Zero Community Advisory Committee had a vacancy, noting women serving on the committee had no voting capacity. She added there was no representation from the perspective of mothers or female caregivers which she said was needed on the committee and urged Council to appoint more women. She expressed disappointment in the City's lack of support on HB2570 as the community was willing to work on this matter with City leadership and wanted to see more action on housing affordability moving forward.

David Bonilla stated he was a cashier for SSP America at Sky Harbor Airport and was currently on a leave of absence to work as an organizer for UNITE HERE Local 11. He claimed nine union activists had been fired from SSP America since going on strike and stressed it was the City's responsibility since SSP America was their contractor. He urged Council to investigate the racial disparity issues at SSP America and place it on the agenda for discussion.

Bryan Willingham, President of United Phoenix Firefighters Local 493, acknowledged the work done over the years by Council to help with Fire Department resources, such as six stations recently approved which would built over the next five years. He stressed the City's fire and emergency medical services had not kept pace with population growth, noting the consequence was response times were about nine minutes while the national standard was five minutes. He commended the City Manager and his staff for supporting the bond measure as well as the community for their commitment to keep the City operational despite budgetary constraints. He mentioned only one fire station was built in the past 15 years while the City added hundreds of thousands of residents which lead to firefighters doing more with less. He implored Council to consider the urgency of this matter and prioritize the safety and well-being of the community in the coming months.

Julia Taggart said she lived on East Hatcher Road in Sunnyslope where there had been four accidents due to speeding. She mentioned she worked with the Street Transportation Department that conducted a speed study with a result of excessive speeding, but speed humps were not permitted because houses were too low on the street. She added she spoke with people in Cave Creek who did not have a solution as they also had dips in the street. She conveyed EOD declined to investigate the complaints, noting the department was obligated to enforce the City's anti-discrimination laws, but the case with the AG Office was on-going and met with them. She urged Council to make sure their allegations of disparity were investigated and place this matter on the agenda for discussion.
